5 TIPS

FOR INDEPENDENT ARTIST

BY SUPER PRODUCER TARBOY WILLIAMS

1. Learn as much as you can about trending technology to help evolve your content creation.
2. Develop a business mindset instead of a "I'm trying to get signed" approach.
3. Take time to pinpoint your exact audience and fan base.
4. Realize this industry cost and that you're going to need to invest.
5. Search for new ways to market your music that sets you apart.

LYL PRETTY

LYL_PRETTY

A budding Hip Hop Artist who pushes boundaries on genre and sound. LYL Pretty is from Houston, Texas and is bringing the Texas heat in her music.

In this issue, we'd like to interview a new sensational Independent Artist, LYL Pretty, or Live Your Life Pretty, regarding her beginnings as an artist in Houston, TX , her development as a Hip-Hop artists in the early 21st century, and to discuss her new Summer Single Beef n Bread. So LYL Pretty welcome, its good to see you and chat with you lets jump right in! What initially drew you to hip-hop, bc and how did you decide to pursue a career in music? LYL: I love music and always have. Its been a huge part of my family and I'm proud to go out and pursue something I love.

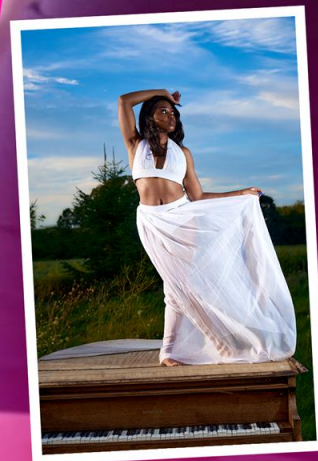

As a new artist, what message or emotions do you want your music to convey to your audience? LYL: For me I feel my name speaks to what emotions I try to evoke and that's one of living your life to the fullest and really encouraging people to dance and have a good time. I've always been a dancer so dance is and expression is always an important part of my music. Tell us about your creative process. How do you come up with lyrics and melodies for your songs? LYL: I just have to feel it you know- I like to keep things organic and allow my creativity to flow out, so most writing sessions start with some relaxation and meditation. Okay and so we've heard some of your other music, how does your new single Beef n Bread push your music to the next level? LYL: I think with my other singles Smoke You Out and Boots, I was looking for a more party feel, and with Beef N Bread I'm giving a more raw, female Rap Energy. You can still have a good time, but this one just lets you know I'm here to compete!

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW STREETS SOPRANO

Mums Mag: Where are you from originally?

Streets: I was born in Toledo, Ohio.

Mums Mag: What type of artist you describe yourself as?

Streets: I would have to say hip hop artist, for sure.

Mums Mag: What artist inspires you as an artist?

Streets: Right now, Benny The Butcher inspires me most musically.

Mums Mag: What is your creative process like?

Streets: For me my creative process differs. I mean (1) day I can be riding through my city (Buffalo, NY) listening to a beat from imminent start writing a verse. Weso might start coming up with a hook & boom you get "Back Against The Wall".

Mums Mag: What artist would you most like to collaborate with?

Streets: Honestly outside TNB/or BSF artists, I would probably say J1 The Prince. I think our sounds mixed would be crazy (frfr).

Mums Mag: If you could go on tour with an artist right now who would it be?

Streets: Without sounding programmed, I'm going to have to say Benny The Butcher. I feel like those group of fans relates to my lifestyle the most.

Mums Mag: What is one message you would give to your fans?

Streets: Never give up (Frfr). I started out myself, it was days/ times I didn't know what to do next.

Where I had to ask myself, "Do you really have what it takes to become this successful entrepreneur" ?

Mums Mag: What is the most useless talent you have?

Streets: Honestly don't think I have (1) (Frfr) I mean everything I really feel is for a purpose.

So if I process this talent I don't know how to utilize yet is just (1) before it's time.

Mums Mag: We see you have been involved with a movement trust nobody music group How did that become as big as it has gotten?

Streets: You know sometimes I don't even understand how big it's gotten until I see fans overseas screaming "TNBMG". I came up with Trust Nobody Body Music Group in 2016. Just in a lonely space understanding more, & more to love & accept people for who they are.

Mums Mag: What is the best advice you've been given?

Streets: To understand you have supporters around who wants to support but doesn't necessarily see the vision the same way you do. You just need to figure out how to make the vision visible.

Mums Mag: If you could change anything about the industry, what would it be?

Streets: The creativity, I just feel like a lot of the music, I hear today be the same just a different name.

Mums Mag: If you weren't striving to become a musician, what would you be doing?

Streets: For me I know it's "Success Or Death" if I wasn't rapping honestly I'd be in the streets hustling.

Mums Mag: What do you feel is the best song you released? Why?

Streets: My best song to date I feel honestly "Natural Born Sinners" Ft Emily Rodriguez.

It's inspirational, it's a feeling I can't explain I get inside every time I hear this song it doesn't seem to fail.

Mums Mag: What's the next best move for streets soprano and trust nobody music group?

Streets: This new album DAMN: Nothing Last Forever. Released off Trust Nobody Music Group/ Black Soprano Family Records/ NeXT Records LLC.

Mums Mag: With you now being a ceo of your own company has that step been a LIL different then just being an artist?

Streets: Of course, I'm still an artist at Black Soprano Family Records. So there it's a formula where as it takes me to sit learn play my part wait my turn. Go full force once I'm put in the game.

Mums:

Where can your fans find your music?

And follow you to come see you live in action?

Streets: I'm currently on every streaming platform thanks to my new Black Soprano Family Records/ NeXT Records 2023' label/ distribution deal.
